

Step 2: Solids and salts are removed from the wastewater through enclosed evaporation tanks and dried. It is then thermally treated to remove volatile organic compounds (VOCs) as gases.